

NOW...FOR A FEW VERY, EXTREMELY,
UN-BORING,
COMPANY FACTS!

Here's a little bit ABOUT US. We're a children's entertainment brand and book series committed to empowering kids to make healthy choices! We combine the superpowers of story-telling, fun, humor, kindness and good nutrition into one trusted brand with a mission to inspire kids to read more, dream more, play more, laugh more and eat more veggies!

Earthlings call us CHARACTERS, but we're The Rootlets -- Brocc, Carrotina, Cornelius and Kaley! We're best-friend superheroes, named after our veggie hair. We have healthy habits (like drinking our green power juice boxes) and we've got a HUGE appetite for adventure. We're on an exciting journey of self-discovery...and it's bursting with friendship, magic and mystery!

Vicki Marquez – OUR CREATOR AND AUTHOR, is a certified health coach, nutrition specialist and plant-based chef, who mixes her passion for healthy eating with her vivid imagination to create a world -- and a business -- where houses are made of artichokes, people are made of plants, and vegetables are simply irresistible!

Jeremy Russnak is the ILLUSTRATOR of The Rootlets. When he's not drawing our veggie-filled world, he's doodling everyday people and places, always looking for the extraordinary in the ordinary. While beets and spinach are his favorite veggies, he never passes on the carrots – keen eyesight is critical for an artist!
